I. DEFINITIONS

“Personal clothing” means clothing items, other than state issued, that inmates are authorized to possess or purchase through the inmate canteen.

“State issued clothing” means clothing items supplied by Corrections.

II. POLICY and PROCEDURE

A. Clothing and Personal Property

1. A list of the maximum amount of clothing and personal property an inmate may possess follows this policy. A copy shall be provided to each inmate when he enters an institution for the first time, and, shall be accessible to the inmate during his period of incarceration. Any deviation from the list for property allowed to an inmate shall be approved in writing by the Warden in conjunction with the Deputy Commissioner of Adult Institutions.
2. Each inmate shall be issued and required to wear state issued clothing. An inmate may possess a limited amount of personal clothing. The institution provides for the cleaning and, if necessary, disinfecting of inmate personal clothing before storage or before allowing the inmate to keep and wear personal clothing. A list of the permitted items is set forth in Attachment I.
 - a. The state issued uniform shall consist of a khaki colored shirt, pants, a belt, and a coat.
 - b. An inmate whose assignment or medical condition requires special clothing or shoes shall be issued these items if the items are approved by the appropriate individual for the type of item.
 - c. During the reception period at the Assessment and Classification Center located at Roederer Correctional Complex or Kentucky Correctional Institution for Women, each inmate shall be issued the standard amount of khaki clothing and other state clothing as outlined in this policy.

- d. A pregnant inmate shall be issued a khaki colored scrub-type uniform if it is necessary to accommodate size requirements.
 - e. An inmate, unable to wear the regular khaki uniform, as designated by medical staff, shall be issued the scrub-type uniform. Once medically cleared by the medical department, the inmate shall return to wearing the khaki uniform.
 - f. Between November 1 and March 1 of each year, an inmate may wear a sweat suit so long as his uniform is worn over it and properly zipped and buttoned.
3. An inmate shall not be allowed to wear another's clothing. Each inmate shall be responsible for all state clothing issued to him. Willful destruction of state clothing shall result in disciplinary action as set forth in CPP 15.2. State clothing shall be properly safeguarded to prevent theft.
 4. An inmate in special status including those in the Assessment and Classification Center, Protective Custody Unit and Special Management Unit shall be required to wear specially styled and marked or colored clothing to denote his status and may be restricted in the amount of property he possesses.
 5. All state issued clothing shall be labeled with the inmate's number.
 6. Each inmate shall adhere to the following dress code:
 - a. The state issued uniform shall be worn at all times except:
 - (1) While in designated recreation areas;
 - (2) To and from designated recreation areas; and
 - (3) While in the inmates' living area or dormitory, if off-duty.
 - b. Dyeing, marking or otherwise altering clothing shall be prohibited.
 - c. Pants shall not be worn in a "sagging" manner with the waistband low on the hips. Pants shall be buttoned and zipped.
 - d. Pockets shall not be turned out. Nothing shall be allowed to hang from the pocket, like a handkerchief.

- e. Shirts shall be tucked inside the pants. The shirt shall be buttoned; however, use of the collar button shall be optional.
 - f. Rolling the collar or pants legs up to change the appearance of clothing shall be prohibited.
 - g. Socks shall be worn with shoes.
 - h. Thermal underwear shall only be worn with a long sleeve shirt and pants.
 - i. Clothing shall not be worn inside out.
 - j. A baseball cap shall not be worn with the bill facing backwards, sideways or upward.
 - k. Under garments shall be worn by all inmates.
 - l. Shoes shall be laced and tied when worn. Shower shoes or clogs shall be of solid construction.
 - m. A belt shall be worn with the zipper style khaki uniform in an appropriate manner. A belt shall not be worn with the scrub-type pants.
 - n. Shower clogs may be worn in the living unit and shower only.
 - o. A male inmate shall be permitted to remove his shirt in the recreation area designated by the warden.
7. If replacement of state issued clothing is necessary, the following shall apply:
- a. Replacement shall be on a one (1) for one (1) exchange basis. Each institution shall establish procedures on replacing items.
 - b. All replacement state issued clothing shall be washed, inspected, repaired and returned to institutional stock.
 - c. If an article does not warrant replacement, it shall not be replaced.
8. An inmate shall be permitted to wear and retain with his clothing inventory any article of clothing issued by an institution as an incentive award or as part of a recreational program. The clothing shall only be worn in compliance with the uniform and only in specified areas.

9. Upon receipt of an inmate, the Assessment and Classification Center shall complete an inmate property form. Each inmate entering the Assessment and Classification Center shall be issued and required to wear state issued clothing. Upon transfer out of the Assessment and Classification Center, the inmate property form shall accompany the inmate. The form shall contain:
 - a. the inmate's name, number and all documentation related to the inventory, movement and registration of his personal and state issued clothing; and
 - b. a list of every article of state issued clothing that shall be signed by the inmate and the property room officer.
10. In addition to adequate quantities of clothing, an inmate shall be issued appropriate personal hygiene items and bedding as required by CPP 14.2.
11. The institution shall ensure that an inmate leaving the institution for a court appearance, and any other public appearance except work detail, shall be attired in clean presentable clothing suitable for the season.
12. Hats and clothing shall not have inflammatory, offensive or obscene wording, design, or insignia that reflect a gang, unauthorized club or organization, or that create a risk to security.
13. Any personal item or material from which clothing may be made shall not be of the same or similar color or design that imitates staff uniforms. Sweat tops and bottoms shall not be of a dark gray color.
14. An institution with inmates in special or unusual categories including minimum security inmates assigned to jobs in the public sector may authorize these inmates to possess a limited quantity of additional items to dress appropriately for the job. The institution shall specify that if the inmate is transferred to another institution, or loses the special status, the additional property shall be disposed of.
15. An institution and facility shall establish specific procedures providing for storage of inmate personal property in the facilities' living units. The guidelines shall limit the area for storage of an inmate's property, for example, one locker, one shelf, or specific volume of possessions. In setting these limits, the institution shall take into consideration the number of inmates assigned to the living area and storage containers available. The amount of personal property allowed each inmate shall be limited to those items that may be neatly and safely placed or stored in or on the container or space designated. Materials referred to in this policy shall not be accumulated to the point they become a fire, sanitation, security or housekeeping hazard.

16. An inmate shall not be permitted to own or possess any role-playing games, including Dungeons and Dragons, Vampire, etc.
17. An inmate shall not possess a device that provides for the electronic storage of information if the information may be loaded by the user and that stores information which may facilitate illegal activities or activities that may pose a security threat. Use shall be restricted to legitimate institutional needs. These devices may include: electronic typewriter with a data or information storage capacity, computer, programmable calculator, and a watch or other device with a programmable calculator or another memory feature. Spell check devices may be authorized for an inmate who experiences difficulties in the areas of spelling or language arts if verified by the appropriate educational personnel.
18. Possession of prescribed medical items including bronchial inhalers, nitro glycerin, douches, and dressings may be authorized as required for the treatment of a specific medical condition or as prescribed by a physician.
19. A male inmate shall not wear or possess female attire or attire that has been altered and is feminine in appearance. A female inmate shall not wear or possess attire that is strictly male (examples: athletic supporters or swim trunks).
20. An unauthorized item shall be inventoried and packaged for mailing and held forty-five (45) days after which the packaged item may be mailed at the expense of the inmate. If the inmate does not want to mail the property to anyone, he may request that his property be donated to a charitable or non-profit organization as an option for disposal. This request shall be in writing and a receipt obtained from the receiving organization. If the inmate refuses or fails to take any action regarding the disposition of his property, the property may be donated to a local charity by the institution after forty-five (45) days. In order to ensure that the inmate has been given adequate notice to dispose of certain property, the inmate shall be given written notice of the property when the inmate is received or transferred and the property is inventoried. The Property Officer may allow an inmate to immediately mail out an item with a declared or apparent value exceeding the monetary limits as set forth in the authorized property list. If the inmate has the money to cover postage he shall immediately mail the item out, otherwise, he shall be required to sign a cash payout (CPO).

B. Legal Materials

Policy Number	Effective Date	Page
17.1	June 2, 2006	6

An inmate shall be allowed to maintain a reasonable amount of legal materials necessary for his legal actions and legal reference materials (example: books), if they are not available at the institutional library. Each facility may establish a limit on the amount of legal materials to be stored and specify the storage locations of legal materials outside of the inmate living areas. The amount allowed in the inmate living areas shall not exceed two (2) cubic feet per inmate.

C. Personal Mail

1. Each institution and facility shall develop specific limits on the storage of personal mail. However, these limits shall not be arbitrary or based on the age of the letters. The limits shall be based on the total amount of materials being stored and the potential fire, sanitation, security or housekeeping hazard that excess correspondence presents.
2. An institution may require that the amount of personal mail stored in an inmate's living area not exceed two (2) cubic feet in combination with legal materials.

D. Hobby-Craft Materials

Each institution and facility shall develop procedures dealing with arts and crafts projects and the storage of materials, if these programs are permitted. If the institution or facility permits storage of hobby-craft items in the living area, it shall be stored in a secure manner and not present a fire, sanitation, security or housekeeping hazard.

E. Inmate Transfer Between Institutions

1. If an inmate is transferred by Corrections from one institution to another, all personal effects, personal and state issued clothing and property, including legal material, shall be inventoried and transferred with the inmate. Prior to transfer, the inmate's clothing shall be examined by staff for any deficiency, alteration or shortage, and to determine proper ownership. A property release receipt listing the inmate's possessions shall be signed by the inmate indicating that he has not left any personal property at the facility from which he is transferred. In an emergency transfer between institutions the inmate's personal effects and property shall be inventoried and transferred within five (5) working days. An inmate who is on a hold ticket from another institution shall only have access to those personal effects and property that are permitted in his temporary living assignment.
2. The sending institution shall inventory all clothing prior to the inmate leaving the institution on transfer to another facility. The sending institution shall be responsible for ensuring the inmate being transferred has only that property which belongs to him and that the property is allowable.

3. The receiving institution shall inventory the items of the arriving inmate and assist in the disposition of all unauthorized items.
4. Inventories of property at both the sending and receiving institution shall be the responsibility of the institutional staff and shall not be left to the inmate.
5. The attached Authorized Property List shall be used for all inventories to ensure property allowances are maintained in accordance with policy.

F. Inmate Acquisition of Property

1. All personal clothing shall be purchased through the institution's inmate canteen or received in the initial home package in accordance with CPP16.4.
2. An inmate currently housed in an institution under the jurisdiction of Corrections shall be allowed to maintain personal clothing that meets the allowable items set forth in this policy.
3. Institutional wardens shall control the receipt of packages in accordance with CPP 16.4.
4. If the inmate acquires additional personal property, the institution shall be responsible for adding the item to the inmate's personal property inventory. An inmate shall discard or mail out personal property through appropriate institutional staff.
5. Any television, clock, electric fan, radio, cassette player, CD player, calculator, headphone, handheld dryer, or hot pot obtained by an inmate after November 1, 2003 shall have a clear case or cabinet. The clear case or cabinet shall not have any tint, for example green see-through plastic.
6. An inmate shall not be authorized to sell, trade or transfer any item of personal property to another inmate.

G. Lost or Abandoned Property

All lost or abandoned property shall be held in the property room of an institution for forty-five (45) days. At the end of the forty-five (45) day limit, an item appropriate for donating to a charitable organization may be donated or used for institutional needs. An item having no intrinsic value shall be destroyed.
